

A Talk by Mark Brown

Sexuality and Puberty

Wednesday 2nd February at 7:15pm to 9:30pm

Warren Park, Kingston Hill, KT2 7LX

Mark has been a qualified learning disability nurse for 22 years during which he has worked in long stay homes, including managing a home for adults with behavioural difficulties, as well as in direct work with parents and families. Between 2000 and 2010 Mark has worked as a Community Learning Disability Nurse for Children with Learning Disabilities in Surrey before founding Special Help 4 Special Needs in 2010. During this time, he has worked with a full range of special needs children, including children and adolescents who have been diagnosed with Autism/Aspergers Syndrome.

The evening is open to members of the NAS Kingston Branch (SWAPS), non members and professionals.

Cost:- Parents / Carers Free

Professionals £20.00

(please make cheques payable to "NAS Kingston")

Anyone wishing to attend should contact Sian Palin by email swapskingston@googlemail.com or telephone on 07917 271350 to book a place. Spaces are limited.

Mark will answer any questions during the later part of his talk.

It would be very helpful if you could email me any particular questions you have in advance so John can arrange the talk to incorporate as many of our current challenges as possible.

Warren Park is a respite facility so please be considerate when leaving.
